2017 Spring Art Exhibits

The 2017 Spring Art Exhibit Season is upon us. Last Friday the Buffalo Niagara Art Association (BNAA) had their reception and awards ceremony at the Artists Group Gallery on Linwood Avenue in Buffalo. This is a great exhibit composed of a variety of media from many extremely talented local artists. The juror of the show was Donald J. Siuta, and I am pleased to announce that he selected my painting “Cherries Jubilee” for an Honorable Mention Award. Don’s comments included “Lovely painting; expertly executed composition.” I am so thankful to Don for judging the show and the BNAA (Manning McCandlish, President and Sherrill Primo, Exhibit Chairperson) for producing these exhibits twice per year. It is a huge commitment that is undertaken by a number of volunteers of the BNAA. This show runs through May 26. There are two additional exhibits in which I am also showing artwork:

Niagara Frontier Watercolor Society Members Spring Show, Carnegie Art Center, Goundry Street, North Tonawanda, May 4-June 3. Thursday, May 25 (6:30-8:30) is the reception and awards ceremony. I will also be there Thursday, May 4 for the opening night to view all of the gorgeous transparent watercolor works. This is a must see! Williamsville Art Society Spring Show, Amherst Center for Senior Services, Audubon Parkway, Amherst, May 7-June 28. Sunday, May 7 (2-4) is the reception and awards ceremony. There are over 130 pieces of art in this exhibit—something sure to please everyone!

GIVING BACK

On Saturday, April 29, the Food Bank of WNY hosted a kick-off event for their 2017 Walk Off Hunger campaign. This was hosted by Fiero's Restaurant in Williamsville in an effort to initiate fund raising for the walk-a-thon's 10th year. I was asked to participate by my friend and colleague Gary Bluestein (Chairperson), and I donated a portion of sales of the original and reproduction artwork sold during the evening. This amount I raised equals over 2,200 meals to be served locally by the Food Bank. Every little bit helps to stamp out hunger!
